

The Dahlicious Dress up Day

Wondercrump ways to look great on the day!

Look a proper twit!

No one knows why Mr and Mrs Twit got married – perhaps she loves his smelly beard or his wicked tricks.

You can look just like The Twits by making a beard out of rolls of black paper. Or why not make big, bushy eyebrows out of pipecleaners?

Don't look like a proper charlie - come as Willy Wonka.

He's a crazy genius and you can be just as smart.

Grab a top hat and a cane, then top it off with a bow tie and crazy coloured clothes.

Get the Matilda look - do it by the book.

Matilda's family can't understand why she wants to read books all day, rather than watch telly.

Why not bring in the biggest book you can find? Matilda would love to read it!

Come as vibrant violet.

Violet Beauregarde was one of the lucky Golden Ticket winners, but she ends up turning into a giant blueberry.

See if you can dress from head to toe in purple. You'll look just the ticket!

More top tips – get your gogglers to the next page

The Dahlicious

Dress up Day

Put your best foot forward as the Centipede.

The Centipede lives inside the Giant Peach and likes to boast that he has exactly one hundred legs.

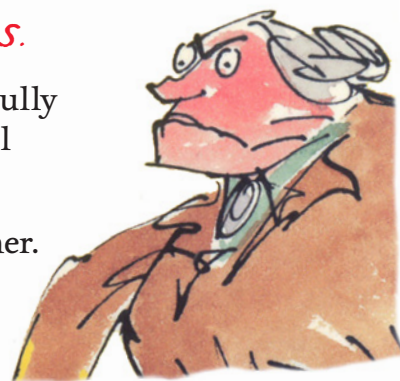

Turn yourself into a centipede. Tie as many shoes as you can together. Or round up all your friends and make one big centipede.

Don't forget your £1 to enter

Be a hit - come as a Miss.

Miss Agatha Trunchball is a cruel bully and headmistress of Crunchem Hall Primary School.

It's fiendishly simple to dress up as her. Just tie your hair in a bun and stuff your jumper with a pillow.

Look fantastic as Mr Fox.

He's a wily and cunning fox. And you can look just like him if you're clever.

Dig out a cravat, waistcoat and jacket. Bingo! You're a fox from the dressing-up box.

Come as Old Green Grasshopper. He's great!

He lives in the Giant Peach and is very old and distinguished. He's also a whizz on the violin.

Hop to it! Dress up from head to toe in green. And if you're feeling really playful, cut out your own cardboard violin.

You can be a super Gloop.

Augustus Gloop was one of the lucky finders of a Willy Wonka Golden Ticket. But he was so greedy he ended up being sucked away by the Chocolate River.

It doesn't take much to look like a glorious Gloop. Just get the biggest pillow you can find and stuff it up your jumper.

More top tips - get your gogglers to the next page

The Dahlicious

Dress up Day

Feeling vile? Come as Veruca.

Veruca Salt pesters her dad until he finally finds a Golden Ticket. But she's so bad that she gets pushed down a rubbish chute by angry squirrels.

It's a good job that looking just like her isn't so annoying. Just find a pink bow for your hair and a frilly skirt.

You'll make a super Sophie.

Sophie is kidnapped by the BFG, but together they hatch a plan to get rid of man-eating giants once and for all.

Hatch your own plan to find a pink dress and a pair of glasses.

Make it a BIG day.

The Big Friendly Giant loves chiddlers and wants every day to be gloriumptious.

You can make your own big impression. Find two paper plates, colour them pink and you've got your very own BFG ears. You'll look exunctly like him!

Give it some oomph as an Oompa-Loompa.

They came from Loompaland to make sure the chocolate flowed at Willy Wonka's Chocolate Factory.

You can look just like them with a pair of dungarees and a coloured wig. Doompadee do it!

Which witch?

The Grand High Witch orders all of the country's children to be exterminated.

But you won't need to cast a spell to dress up as her. Just find some dark clothes and make cardboard claws to wear on your fingers.

Have gloriumptious fun!

